

The South Wolds
Academy
and Sixth Form

22nd May 2020

Dear Parents and Carers,

As we move into the half term holiday, I wanted to share with you our position at present, in regard to the wider opening of the school. The government has stated its ambition that schools open more widely from 1st June. At the time of writing this, we are still awaiting the publication of guidance for secondary schools, from the DfE, to support our planning with respect to opening schools from 1 June 2020 for Year 10 and Year 12 students. Therefore, I can only confirm at this juncture that school will remain open to children of key workers for the week beginning 1 June.

Teaching staff continue to work hard to support every student with remote learning and this will continue after half term. My sincere thanks to all staff who are continually adapting and seeking ways to engage students, in such unusual circumstances. Your efforts are truly appreciated.

This is such a strange and uncertain time for all of us. I can only thank you for your patience, understanding and support. After the half-term, I shall be in touch again with a further update.

Best wishes
